Newhouse, dressed as Mephistopheles presided over a huge cauldron, in the hall, which accounted for happiness and gaiety reigning supreme during the evening. The parlor represented an immense spider's web, with black cats, snakes, and wire spiders entwined in the meshes, while the library was exorcised with its ghosts and grinning skulls. Hand painted autumn leaves formed the pretty decorations of the dining room where a very delicious buffet supper was served. The large veranda was transformed into a typical Japanese tea garden, quantities of wisteria and chrysanthemums interspersed with fans formed the artistic decorations. Miss Mattie Belle Daves, Miss Norma Sweeney and Miss Dorris dressed in the native costume served tea from pretty brass tea services. The back porch was screened with Navajo blankets where an orchestra furnished music for dancing. Those not caring to dance enjoyed a game of bridge or had their fortunes told. ### GROWTH OF ARGENTINA.

Argentina is attracting much attention by its rapid progress. Its yield of wheat this year is estimated at nearly 200,000,000 bushels, and its area is increasing. There is to be expended $50,000,000 in improving the harbor of Buenos Ayres and in building a ship canal. The capital has a population of 1,200,000. English and Germans control most of the manufacturing and transportation while Italians do much of the retail business. There are a few Americans of wealth and influence in the city. A tourist, who has lately returned from Buenos Ayres to this country remarks that the only American who seek that region are those advised to do so by their lawyers. This is a condition that is likely to be removed eventually as a result of the efforts now being made to draw the United States and the South American republics into closer relationship.

THE DEAD IN PALESTINE.

Only within fifty years have Christians who have died in Jerusalem, been buried in coffins. Formerly, Catholics were buried in the valley of the Cedron alongside the Garden of Gethsemane, at the foot of the Mount of Olives where the Jews are still buried today. Only a century ago, a new churchyard was laid out on Mount Zion, where King David and his successors are still buried. The exact spot is unknown, although many attempts have been made to find it. An old tradition says that about the fifth century some workmen accidentally penetrated this vault. They looked in and saw the magnificent sarcophagi, but in trying to enter the chambers of the dead, they were repulsed by flames of fire bursting forth from within. The frightened workmen closed the entrance to the vault, the exact location of which has been forgotten.
